

I am disappointed by Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to require their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. This is a problem that in essence goes against the fundamentals of democracy.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, therefore they should be required to be sensitive and fair to the viewers it serves.

I urge the FCC to take this decision of Sinclair Broadcasting as seriously as possible. Thank you.